ARREST OF A MAIL CONTRACTOR AND CARRIER.

CHARLESTON, Nov. 19.—A Georgetown mail contractor named G. L. Ferrebee, and a carrier named Milligan, were arrested by our cavalry on the Georgetown road, on a charge of aiding intercourse with the enemy. Letters from the officers of the Yankee fleet, addressed to the mail contractor, are reported to have been found on the person of the carrier. Both have been committed for examination. Milligan alleges to have been taken prisoner by the enemy and afterwards released.

RUN THE BLOCKADE.

A dispatch to a mercantile firm in this city, from Wilmington, N. C., dated Nov. 19th, says—We learn that the McMinnville and Manchester railroad will be in readiness to receive trains by next Monday, and that it will be immediately put in daily operation. Workmen are actively engaged reconstructing and repairing bridges. We also learn that the Winchester and Fayetteville road will be in running condition in a few days. The energy of Col. Cole can not be too highly commended, or thanked by the citizens along the route of these thoroughfares.

Advertisers need not mark up every day for a specified time will be published one month, and charged according to the above rates.

Special Notices charged one and a half.

MISCELLANEOUS.

To the Farmers of East Tennessee.

All arms near all the Hogs & cattle you can have been advised to the purchase of hogs, hams, corn, etc., in East Tennessee, and will appoint a sufficient number of agents to assist you, and delineable territory, and will in due time publish their names.

We are determined to make prices "uniform" and general, and I hope every hog in East Tennessee suitable for pork, will be purchased.

My office, for the present, is Atlanta, Ga.—will remain to Knoxville soon. Letters addressed to me at either point will be attended to.

RAILROAD FARE.

SIX CENTS PER MILE is the regular fare on this road, and all persons getting on the cars without tickets will be charged at that rate. The duties of the conductors are to look after the comfort of passengers and the safety of trains, and not to collect fare.

Passengers who will comply with the rules of the road, will be allowed to pay them at about five cents per mile.

Passengers beginning on Fort Wayne will be charged only half fare, provided they pay 3/4 of a dollar. The fare applies to both private and non-commissioned officers.

MASONIC FEMALE INSTITUTE,

CLEVELAND, TENN.

Rev. J. N. Bradshaw, President.

THE next session of this Institute will commence on Monday the 1st day of September next, under the direction and superintendence of the Rev. Mr. Bradshaw, who has full charge of it for the last ten months.

The trustees in making this announcement would most especially address it to all citizens who have daughters to educate, and who desire to do so. Mr. Bradshaw has charge of the school for the last ten months, during which time he has rendered ample, and we might say, universal satisfaction to the parents, and we might say, universal satisfaction to the trustees, patrons and pupils. There never was a better time for men to educate their daughters than now—money plentiful—everything a farmer raises bears two or three times what it did when we last saw it. What excuse can there be now for a man who neglects to educate his daughter? None. Because here, in Cleveland's healthy locality, we have an institute, with an excellent instructor, aided by a sufficient corps of assistants, to instruct girls in all the works of their patronage. Let us not all but their shoulder to the wheel, and build up such a school as will be of valuable profit to us and a honor to our town. We have the building and we have the teachers—the balance devolves upon the people. We hope they may nobly perform their duty.

The trustees are thankful to the citizens for the patronage bestowed upon Mr. Bradshaw, before whom, it is said, he stands high in the estimation of the public. The institution has not lost any of the enviable reputation it sustained in the better days of the Republic.
